

Hypoglycemia

Hypoglycemia occurs when the blood glucose level drops below 70mg/dl 【symptoms might develop when the blood glucose level is lower than 50 mg/dl】or when the level drops rapidly from a high level , a circumstance where the patient might still experience Hypoglycemia symptoms despite a relatively high blood glucose level .

Where dose hypoglycemia occur?

1. Insulin or oral medication overdose.
2. Fail to keep a regular diet after injection or administration.
3. Sudden increase of exercise amount without proper intake of snacks.
4. Suffering from other diseases such as pancreas, liver or kidney.

hypoglycemia symptoms

Reference materials:

American Diabetes Association. (2018). Standards of medical care in diabetes—2018: summary of revisions. Diabetes care,41(Supplement 1).

【本衛教單僅供衛教宣導用，圖文內容若有侵犯著作權，請惠予告知本院】